"I love this game and I love it because it gives me the ability to create and build a unique world. And I love that because it allows me to lose myself in creative and fun roleplaying. I also love it because I get the chance to work with friends and other players across the world and experience the story together. The opportunities are endless. The feeling of depth is what attracted me most to this game. The leveling, exploration, magic, and crafting are all a truly unique experience, and the combat is smooth, especially when compared to most other games. And best of all, the game is free. I have to add one thing. The first time that I played in multiplayer, there was a time lapse of several hours and I had very little idea what was going on. But then I reached a point that I was too invested in the story to care, and I can't remember what happened in between. The story of the game is absolutely beautiful and worth experiencing."
